Happy Pickle

A happy pickle that I'm trying to get rid of, please. I think it's cursed. I keep hearing strange noises coming from my pantry where the pickle is. Please send help.

Razer Gaming Mouse, lightly used

An old razer mouse I used to game with, bought a new Logitech, so this bad boy is no use to me anymore.

Your Store, Your Way

ShareSpace is a blah blah blah something about how the website started and the main mission behind letting people host a store where they can sell things for other things and stuff like that.

Something about thanking each and every one of its multiple millions of users for making sharespace possible, even though we all know its ran by ads and selling your personal information to advertisers.

Thanks for making ShareSpace a part of your business!
